NOTE DE L'AUTEUR

George Gershwin est sans aucun doute le compositeur du XX<sup>e</sup> siècle qui a créé un point de rencontre entre la culture musicale européenne et populaire américaine. Ses grands chefs-d'œuvre en témoignent, notamment Un Américain à Paris écrit lors de son séjour à Paris où il part apprendre les techniques de composition académiques européennes. Sa rencontre avec Maurice Ravel, compositeur et orchestrateur parmi les plus représentatifs de la musique européenne du XX<sup>e</sup> siècle, est historique.

Four saxes in Paris est un hommage à George Gershwin et à son poème symphonique An american in Paris, duquel est tirée cette fantaisie, qui comprend 3 saxophones dans la partition orchestrale (alto, ténor et baryton qui jouent également 3 saxophones sopranos). Dans cet arrangement, le quatuor de saxophones parvient étonnamment à reproduire tout le “sound” et le “swing” de ce chef-d'œuvre : français dans la première partie, américain dans la seconde : les deux âmes du saxophone !

Depuis 1984 avec le Quartetto di Sassofoni Accademia (Gaetano Di Bacco, Enzo Filippetti, Giuseppe Berardini et Fabrizio Paoletti) en plus de la redécouverte du répertoire original, j'ai réalisé plusieurs arrangements pour quatuor de saxophones, mettant en évidence les particularités de cette formation, contribuant ainsi au grand développement technico-exécutif dont témoigne cet arrangement.

COMPOSER'S NOTE

George Gershwin is without a doubt the composer of the 20th century who brought together European and popular American musical cultures. His great masterpieces bear witness to this, including An American in Paris, written during his stay in Paris where he went to study European compositional techniques. His meeting with Maurice Ravel, one of the most representative 20th century European composers, was historic.

Four saxes in Paris is a tribute to George Gershwin and his symphonic poem, An American in Paris, from which this fantasy was taken. Three saxophones are included in the orchestral score, alto, tenor and baritone (with all three doubling soprano saxophone). In this arrangement, the saxophone quartet surprisingly manages to reproduce all of the “sounds” and “swing” of this masterpiece: French in the first part, American in the second: the two souls of the saxophone!

Since 1984, the Quartetto di Sassofoni Accademia (Gaetano Di Bacco, Enzo Filippetti, Giuseppe Berardini and Fabrizio Paoletti) has been rediscovering original repertoire. I have also been making arrangements for saxophone quartet, highlighting the peculiarities of this formation and contributing to the technical development to which this arrangement bears witness.
